Immune Checkpoint Proteins

Creative BioMart has developed recombinant immune checkpoint proteins shown below, which cover multiple species and various expression systems. Bio-activity has also been assayed and confirmed.

- 01 Bioactive
- 02 Hot families
- 03 Wide range of species
- 04 Multiple expression systems
- 05 Outstanding quality
- 06 Competitive price
- 07 Fast turnaround

Creative BioMart also provides custom production services. As a leading protein supplier in the biotechnology field, we understand the importance of convenient and easy-to-use systems for high-level expression and sample purification. We've established a variety of protein expression platforms along with other protein services like membrane protein services, protein labeling and stable cell line services. If you don't find a product suitable for your research, please do not hesitate to contact us. We hope to partner with you to explore new frontiers in biological science and accelerate your discovery.
